

LOCAL NOTES.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY.

Business is improving slightly.

High-heeled boots and umbrellas at the Lion.

California cherries have appeared in our local market.

Dr. Barrows left this morning for duty in the field.

Seersucker suits are all the rage in Prescott this season.

The Apaches are having a regular picnic with Mexican troops.

Phonograph records have begun to soar above the hundred mark already.

Sheriff Mulvenon went down to Tipton today to summon jurors for the next term of court.

Captain Wirt Davis, 4th Cavalry, has a thirty days leave of absence on account of sickness.

Phonics has furnished Los Angeles with ripe apricots two weeks earlier than the earliest California apricots.

Prescott has, thus far, been studiously ignored, in the matter of territorial appointments, by Governor Zuleik.

Tom Milligan of the bridge barber shop and bath house, prepares a hair tonic, which removes dandruff, cures and prevents head-ache.

C. E. Lambert, an eastern mining man, who visited Prescott last fall, was so well pleased with the mining outlook here, that he has returned on mining business.

A telegram from Nogales, states that the Mexican troops had an engagement with the Yaqui forces, killing 300 and capturing 2,000. It is thought that the Yaqui war is virtually over.

Governor Zuleik has named Judge J. W. Anderson of Pinal, A. L. Henshaw of Phoenix and N. B. Walker of Tombstone as prison directors. The last named is said to be a republican, and manager of a Tombstone mining company.

A package containing nine dead rats was received through the postoffice today by a Prescott merchant. Before its delivery he was compelled to surrender a nickel in the shape of postage due. Some wage evidently considered the sending a good joke.

Shull & Austin, proprietors of the Grey Eagle saloon, announce a semi-weekly stage service between Prescott and Alexander, on account of increase of business.

They will carry passengers and freight to Groom creek, Hassayampa, Bueras, Alcan and all intervening points. Stages leave Prescott Monday and Friday, returning Tuesday and Saturday each week.

Large flocks of beautiful plumaged birds have recently come to this territory, which have been strangers here before. It is said that they came from Florida and other Southern States, arriving in the southern part of the territory shortly after the cold spell in the former places last winter.

Large numbers of them can now be seen in the trees in and around Prescott.

C. C. Merriam, a capitalist of Rochester, New York, who has been on a brief visit here, to investigate our resources, with a view of making investments in a Yavapai county securities, left for home this morning, going via Phoenix. He stopped, en route, to visit the Lyax creek hydraulic works and was well pleased with them. He was also favorably impressed with the country generally and thus so telegraphed his associates east.

E. H. Withers, a manager of the Gopher House and cattle company's ranch at Coyote Spring, will ship four car loads of horses to the eastern market next week. He will accompany the shipment, and on his return, expects to have about 100 head more rounded up, ready for shipment. It is his intention to ship all the horses from the ranch, with the exception of about forty or fifty head and immediately stock the range with cattle.

A quiet wedding was celebrated yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Curtis, the high contracting parties being Dr. Barrows, surgeon U. S. A., and Miss Hettie Curtis. The ceremony was performed by Father Gubitos in the presence of a few, only, of the intimate friends of the couple. Dr. Barrows has been stationed at Whipple for nearly two years and is recognized as being a very bright young physician and a social and affable gentleman while his bride is one of the most popular young ladies in Prescott. The JOURNAL-MINER extends its congratulations to the happy young couple.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY.

Fine ice cream weather.

Chas. Behm is in town from Juniper.

The Indians are said to be breaking up again in small bands.

W. T. Baker has returned from a trip to the Salt River and Gila valleys.

The explosion of a lamp last night was discovered in time to avert a disastrous conflagration.

James Stewart, superintendent of the Arizona stage company, came in from the south last evening.

The Tivoli saloon of Mingis & Co. is decorated with evergreens giving it the appearance of a forest hall.

There are backward in registering this year. Only 62 names are registered to date, eleven of which were registered last year.

H. E. Harris has returned from the Centennial mining district where he and associates are engaged in developing some rich mining property.

If you feel rich and are very particular, leave your measure at the Lion Store who will make you a suit to order and you will be certain to obtain a good fit.

Tom Shipp of Mohave county has contracted to furnish parties in southern California with 700 beef steers. The first lot of 200 have been shipped from Pench Springs.

A rumor was current today that orders had been issued for the removal of the regimental headquarters of the 10th Cavalry to Ft. Thomas. A troop of the 24 Cavalry or a company of the 8th Infantry is expected to be ordered to Whipple.

O. J. Sullivan, a well known stage man of Noveau and Idaho is visiting Prescott. He has the contract for carrying the mail between Maricopa and Prescott and Prescott and Ash Fork from July 1st, 1896.

J. N. Rodenburg, who has turned his attention to gardening, had his labor for the last two months all destroyed last night by a vagrant cat getting into his yard and eating up his entire crop of green peas and other vegetables.

If all the reports, started in circulation in the southern part of the territory regarding the hostilities returning to the reservation and the San Carlos Indians leaving it are true, then truly must there be a regular procession moving each way.

The May, bi-monthly roster of troops, serving in the department of Arizona has been received and since the acquisition of the district of New Mexico has grown to be quite a volume. As a specimen of the typographical art, like all work turned out by Cass, Alhambra it is excellent.

A new mining district has been discovered sixteen miles south of Vulture and nearly west of the White tank. Tremendous bodies of Galena in large ledges is reported. According to recent assays, the ore carries from 20 to 60 percent silver. This district has been named the Osborn and Williams district.

Superior J. D. Cook is down on his ranch rounding up a lot of beef cattle. He intends to ship a train load shortly to Kansas city. Should he fall short of that amount from his own herd, he will purchase a sufficient number to complete the amount.

C. C. Merriam who visited this section, is a traveler and author as well as a gentleman of wealth. He has traveled over the greater portion of the globe and last year published a beautiful volume containing lectures on scientific subjects and observations made during his travels. A casual glance through its pages shows that it is not only an interesting work from literary stand point but is profusely illustrated.

Before separating, after their ride, the cow boys gave a dance, on Wednesday night, at the residence of the Merritt brothers, on the Agua Fria, which was well attended by the ladies in the vicinity.

The regulation costumes, for the occasion, were overalls, for the gentlemen, and calico dresses for the ladies, and so much enjoyment was experienced in "tripping the light fantastic" as if dressed in silks and broadcloth.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY.

Phonics is shipping ripe apricots to Minnesota.

The 1st Infantry will go to California July 1st.

Dr. Lincoln, insane asylum director has gone to Phoenix.

G. T. Shaw is making a popular resort of the seven mile house.

Fresh Apples just received at Aitken's cigar and fruit store.

Miss Maggie Dickson of Skull valley is visiting friends in Prescott.

Frank Ingoldslaby, a former Prescottite, talks of emigrating to Texas.

Germaine succeeds in dodging both armies remarkably well.

Major Glenn, chief paymaster of this department has gone to Santa Fe on business.

Some Phenix apricots imported by A. Aitken were soon disposed of to his customers.

J. W. Clay and family have returned to Prescott after spending the winter in the Salt River valley.

Mrs. H. B. Cronch of Skull valley is spending a few days in Prescott visiting friends and relatives.

A strike of two feet of $1,600 ore has been made in the White Spar mine in the Hassayampa district.

Directors Lincoln, Stewart and Hatch, of the insane asylum, expect to have the building completed in July.

The body of the niece of A. L. Peck whose wife and child were murdered by the Apaches, has been found near the scene of the former murders.

Proposals for 100 head of cavalry horses will be opened at the office of the chief quartermaster, at Whipple Barracks at noon on Monday next, May 24th.

Advices from El Paso says that the people of southern New Mexico fear an Apache raid through that section, as signal fires are visible in the mountains near by.

Dr. F. K. Ainsworth has been appointed Acting Assistant Surgeon U. S. Army and assigned to duty as Post Surgeon, Whipple Barracks, during the absence of Assistant Surgeon C. C. Barrows, on duty in the field with command operating against hostiles.

The Tucson Citizen says the news has been received there of the marriage of ex-Chief Justice C. G. W. French, of Arizona, to a Miss Munn, somewhere in the east, the full particulars not having been received. No puns permitted.

The party given by the Rifles last evening in their newly repaired armory was all that could have been desired by its members. The attendance was quite large, the music excellent, every body was in good spirits and had a good time. We congratulate our neighbors on their success.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY.

Sheriff Mulvenon has returned from Tipton.

Apricots sell for 35 cents per pound in Prescott.

Memorial Day programme appears in today's issue.

Goods at reduced prices at M. Goldwater & Son's.

Chief of Police J. M. Dodson is on the sick list.

Dr. Barrows will join Capt. Lebo's command at Calabasas.

The calendar for next term of court contains 62 cases in all.

Mr. Thorbeck will open his new bakery again to-morrow morning.

The court calendar for next term of court, contains five divorce cases.

"Jersey short horn" or "pooled jersey," which, would be more appropriate.

Col. Rodgers will shortly put a gun boat on his crop pond, to protect the fishy tribe within.

Tom Brown, is general manager of a big festa to come off in Phoenix on St. John's day, June 24th.

M. H. Sherman came in from Phoenix last evening. Mrs. S. and the baby are in Napa California.

The Southern Pacific Railroad company, carried over their road, during the month of April, 27,157 passengers.

Great fatality exists among the children of St. Johns. Doctors seem to be unable to determine into whether the disease is diphtheria or spinal meningitis.

E. Rawlins formerly of Tucson is editor of the Nogales News instead of Hon. H. G. Rollins, as reported in some of the territorial papers and copied by the JOURNAL-MINER.

General Miles sent Lieut. Fallon to the Papago agency to enlist Papagos for the war against the Apaches. The former does not take kindly to the proposition and refuse to enlist.

A deputy sheriff, a few days since, captured three Pullman car thieves at the Needles. They had just worked a Pullman to the extent of several values when captured. All the stolen property being recovered.

A carload of wool, while in transit over the Atlantic & Pacific road, while the train was in rapid motion just before reaching Holbrook, on Thursday last, took fire from spontaneous combustion and was totally destroyed.

The Gazette says that Judge Anderson declines the honor, recently thrust upon him by Governor Zuleik, by the appointment as insane asylum director. Friends of the judge here predicted such action on his part.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY.

Fresh lemons just received at Aitken's.

Shade hats only 50 cents at Mrs. Farber's.

J. I. Gardner is off on a trip to California.

E. M. Tackett has been appointed a deputy sheriff.

The best white percale and cheviot shirts at the Lion.

Ex-Mayor Ingerson is able to be on the streets again.

James E. Smith has been appointed deputy assessor.

Gen. W. Hance came in from his Cienega home last evening.

M. H. Sherman left on the Ash Fork stage this morning.

Odellia Delaney has sold to Jas. Cassidy lot 1, block 16, Prescott.

M. H. Costa has got his Flaggstaff barber shop open, with a good run of business.

The thermometer reached the 94th degree yesterday. This is about as high as it ever goes in Prescott.

Word has been received from F. G. Parker that he has his mill in operation cutting ties for the branch railroad.

Charity is said to cover a multitude of sins, but sewerage costs and linen drawers cover a multitude of sinners these days.

The funeral of Mr. Crist, father of Mrs. N. B. Bowers, was attended by a large concourse of people to day.

Assessor Moore is confident of being able to complete the assessment of this county within the time specified by law.

U. S. Jackson, formerly of this vicinity, is prospecting for mine, near Indian, California. He writes a friend here that times are good and money plenty there.

By direction of Captain Pullman the advertisement for proposals for grain has been changed to read for "oats or barley in sacks" instead of for barley alone.

Thos. Brown, a hard working and prosperous miner of Turkey creek, left for home today. He paid his respects to the JOURNAL-MINER office while in town.

Deputy Marshal C. T. Donovan and wife returned last evening to Prescott. The latter, who has been on a protracted visit to Los Angeles is much improved in health.

Mr. Thorbeck has reopened his new bakery on Katerman street opposite the JOURNAL-MINER office and is now prepared to serve customers in any part of the city.

Julius Benham has recently added a soda fountain to his ice cream establishment. Additional rooms have also been fitted up for accommodation of his numerous patrons, and the inner man or woman can now be pleasantly refreshed and cooled there.

A stock range advertised to-day offers a splendid opportunity for investment for any party desiring to engage in that business. It is located in the Lower Agua Fria valley where grass is abundant the year round and where new grass is always from six weeks to two months earlier in the spring than around Prescott. An opportunity such as is offered here will certainly not lack for a customer.

The vaqueros engaged in the recent rodeo to Skull and adjoining valleys, had a number of horse and foot races during the summer. At a hundred yard foot race between Ernest Fisher and George Neap was run on Saturday last. It was won by Fisher in 11 seconds. A tie was run between him and Riley Johnson last evening time 11 seconds. A regular vaquero dance was given at the Skull valley school house on Saturday evening last, at which a pleasant time was had.

From Geo. W. Hance we learn of a serious accident, which happened to Major McClellan of the 10th Cavalry a few days since, but from the effects of which we are happy to state he is recovering. Major is post commander at Camp Verde and when the accident happened was visiting the celebrated Montezuma wells. While climbing around the rocks he took hold of a dead limb which broke and precipitated him to the ground a distance of several feet, his head striking on a rock causing instant consciousness. Major McClellan is one of the most popular officers in the army.

The Social Club.

The Prescott social club held a meeting last night and received the report of its officers and elected new officers for the ensuing term as follows: President E. M. Sanford; Vice President, C. B. Martinelli; Secretary, C. A. Duke; Treasurer, G. A. Bray. New committees were also appointed. The invitation committee is now composed of officers named above and all invitations issued previous to last evening are null and will not be honored. Parties desiring invitations to the parties of the club should apply to the above committee. The club will give another party at an early date.

No More Express Money Orders.

Mr. J. C. MARTIN, EDITOR JOURNAL-MINER, Dear Sir:—Will you please state for the information of the public that owing to the fact that a banker's license has been demanded from Wells Fargo & Co. for selling money orders, they have decided to withdraw their sale in this territory.

Charged for money orders being small it would not justify them in paying twenty dollars per quarter in each county or office.

J. F. MEAD, Agent, Prescott, May 24th, 1896.

Court Calendar June Term, 1896.

UNITED STATES CRIMINAL.

1, Docket No 108—The United States vs David K. Udall, polygamy; U. S. District attorney for plaintiff, Jao A. Rush for defendant.

2, Docket No 137—The United States vs J. H. Deane, murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush Wells & Howard for defendant.

3, Docket No 138—The United States vs J. H. Deane, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

4, No 139—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

5, Docket No 140—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

6, Docket No 141—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

7, Docket No 142—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

8, Docket No 143—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

9, Docket No 144—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

10, Docket No 145—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

11, Docket No 146—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

12, Docket No 147—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

13, Docket No 148—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

14, Docket No 149—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

15, Docket No 150—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

16, Docket No 151—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

17, Docket No 152—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

18, Docket No 153—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

19, Docket No 154—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

20, Docket No 155—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

21, Docket No 156—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

22, Docket No 157—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

23, Docket No 158—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

24, Docket No 159—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

25, Docket No 160—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

26, Docket No 161—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

27, Docket No 162—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

28, Docket No 163—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

29, Docket No 164—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

30, Docket No 165—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

31, Docket No 166—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

32, Docket No 167—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

33, Docket No 168—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

34, Docket No 169—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

35, Docket No 170—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

36, Docket No 171—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

37, Docket No 172—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

38, Docket No 173—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

39, Docket No 174—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

40, Docket No 175—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

41, Docket No 176—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

42, Docket No 177—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

43, Docket No 178—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

44, Docket No 179—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

45, Docket No 180—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

46, Docket No 181—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

47, Docket No 182—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

48, Docket No 183—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

49, Docket No 184—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

50, Docket No 185—The U. S. vs H. W. Hitchcock, assault with intent to murder; U. S. attorney for plaintiff, Rush, Wells & Howard for defendant.

51, Docket No 186—